REQUIREMENTS (SUBJECTS THAT ARE ASSUMED TO BE KNOWN)

English I

OBJECTIVES

The main objective of this course is to provide students with the necessary communicative skills, both oral and written. Special attention will be given to the professional environment of the Tourism industry.

Students must attain an English level of B2 according to the Common European Framework of Reference, which implies that they can understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation. Can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party. Can produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and independent disadvantages of various options.

By the end of the academic year, students must be able to:

1. UNDERSTANDING:

1.1. Listening: Understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure etc. Understand the main point of many radio or TV programmes on current affairs or topics of personal or professional interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear.

1.2. Reading: Understand texts that consist mainly of high frequency everyday or job-related language. Understand the description of events, feelings and wishes in personal letters.

2. SPEAKING:

Deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken. Enter unprepared into conversation on topics that are familiar, of personal interest or pertinent to everyday life. Connect phrases in a simple way in order to describe experiences and events, hopes and ambitions. Give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans. Narrate a story or relate the plot of a book or film and describe his/her reactions.

3. WRITING:

Write simple connected texts on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. Write personal letters describing experiences and impressions.

DESCRIPTION OF CONTENTS: PROGRAMME

The Programme will be focused on ESP (English for Specific Purposes) within Tourism.

1. Topics:

1.1. Heritage sites

1.2. Event management.

1.3. Applying for a job. Promotion at work.

1.4. Culinary tourism.

1.5. Adventure tourism.

2. Vocabulary: specific terminology related to the above-mentioned topics.

3. Grammar:

3.1. Verb tenses (past).

3.2. Hypothetical situations.

- 3.3. Dependent prepositions.
- 3.4. Relative clauses.
- 3.5. Modal verbs.

LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

All the lessons will be taught in English. Attendance will be highly taken into account in the assessment criteria. The methodology used will follow a communicative approach and it will be widely based on the student's active participation in class.

Students will give oral presentations (individually or in groups) and will also take part in communicative situations both in pair or group work. They will also be required to become involved in activities using audiovisual means. All the scheduled tasks will be related to the professional environment of Tourism.

Office hours: to be determined by the professor at the beginning of the semester.

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

Assessment criteria:

1. The final test (COMPULSORY) will represent 60% of the mark. It will be divided into three parts: a) listening comprehension, b) oral expression and c) reading comprehension, writing and use of English. It is COMPULSORY for all students to take the ORAL TEST, which will be held EXCLUSIVELY during the last week of the semester in which the subject is taught. Due to organization issues, this grade will be held at the extra exam session.
 2. All the exercises and activities done during the lessons will count for 30% of the final mark, provided they are handed in when due.
 3. Class participation and the students' interest for the subject will represent 10% of the final mark.
- AT THE EXTRA EXAM SESSION, THE FINAL GRADE ALLOCATED TO EACH STUDENT WILL BE BASED ONLY AND EXCLUSIVELY ON THE MARK HE OR SHE MAY OBTAIN IN THIS EXAM.

% end-of-term-examination:	60
% of continuous assessment (assignments, laboratory, practicals...):	40
