- Will acquire practical experience in the use of research methods
- Will transmit clearly relevant findings
- Will be able to explain orally the reasons for the choice of a particular research topic, the structure of the research, the use of sources, the relevant findings and the main conclusions

DESCRIPTION OF CONTENTS: PROGRAMME

The Bachelor Thesis aims to give students the opportunity to show the scientific and methodological level they have reached in their studies by conducting in-depth work on a specific topic.

The Bachelor Thesis is conceived from a flexible approach:

- Critical analysis of existing scientific studies
- Critical comparison of sociological theories
- Critical review of interpretations of a given topic
- Analysis of field work already done
- Application of sociological theories to a case study
- Any other consistent and well founded approach

LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

The Bachelor Thesis can be done under two different ways:

- General: The general modality of the Bachelor Thesis on Sociology is based on the idea that students work on the subject they prefer, always directed and supervised by their tutors. The general modality includes:
- 4 hours of tutorial in the classroom

- 4 hours of individual tutorial

- Specific: modality in which a single student works under the direction of a teacher who must previously accept this rol. The student will receive at least 8 hourss of orientation.

In both cases students are expected to work 450 hours

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

- QUALITY OF THE WRITTEN DOCUMENT: 2.5/10
- ORAL PRESENTATION: 2.5/10
- RESEARCH CAPACITY: 5/10

The University uses the Turnitin Feedback Studio program within the Aula Global for the delivery of student work. This program compares the originality of the work delivered by each student with millions of electronic resources and detects those parts of the text that are copied and pasted. If the student has correctly made the appointment and the bibliographic reference of the documents he uses as a source, Turnitin will not mark it as plagiarism.
