Economic analysis of law

Academic Year: (2019 / 2020) Review date: 24-05-2019

Department assigned to the subject: International Law, Ecclesiastical Law and Philosophy of Law Department

Coordinating teacher: DORADO PORRAS, JAVIER

Type: Compulsory ECTS Credits : 1.0

Year : 1 Semester : 1

OBJECTIVES

Students should be acquainted with the basic tools of this method of analysis of legal systems. Both theoretic and empirical dimensions are important. Students should be capable of using this techniques to asses public policies related to human rights.

DESCRIPTION OF CONTENTS: PROGRAMME

1. The roles of State and Market in the fullfilment of fundamental rights. Eficiency and equity. Economic, cultural and social rights.
2. Economic analysis of fundamental rights. Problems of efficacy of non-interference rights. From rights to prestations
3. Due process. Economical analysis of judicial policy

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

Written assignment on a prefixed guide of questions (90%)
Participation at class (10%)

% end-of-term-examination:	0
% of continuous assessment (assigments, laboratory, practicals…):	100