Research Project

Academic Year: ( 2019 / 2020 ) Review date: 06-05-2020

Department assigned to the subject: International Law, Ecclesiastical Law and Philosophy of Law Department

Coordinating teacher: DORADO PORRAS, JAVIER

Type: Compulsory ECTS Credits : 5.0

Year : 1 Semester : 2

OBJECTIVES

Students should elaborate a project of research with the advice of a professor. Professors will help them and discuss their projects. In this course the students acquire the needed skills to conduct their future research. They start to get acquainted with individualized tutorials, a methodology that they will use extensively in their second year. They also put into practice some of the research techniques that have been acquired in previous matters.
This project will prove the capacity of the future researchers to plan an original research and to identify its challenges

DESCRIPTION OF CONTENTS: PROGRAMME

1. Briefing of the investigation project (max. 500 words)
2. Report of the project: a) goals; b) state of art; c) hypothesis; d) objectives; e) bibliography (max. 3000 words)
3. Methodology (2000 words)
4. Justification of the project and its connection with the aims of the Master

LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

Learning activities
- Tutorial: 15 h
- Student invididual work: 110h

Methodology
- Critical reading of recommended text.
- Elaboration of papers.
- Tutorials.

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

Individual research essay directed by a tutor that will assess it. The system is the same for extraordinary call

| | |
|---|---|
| % end-of-term-examination: | 0 |
| % of continuous assessment (assigments, laboratory, practicals…): | 100 |