

Protection of competition in the transport and postal service sectors

Academic Year: (2019 / 2020)

Review date: 24-04-2019

Department assigned to the subject: Private Law Department

Coordinating teacher: FELIU REY, JORGE

Type: Electives ECTS Credits : 3.0

Year : 1 Semester : 2

REQUIREMENTS (SUBJECTS THAT ARE ASSUMED TO BE KNOWN)

Competition Law

OBJECTIVES

- Ability of conflict resolution in contexts that are new or unfamiliar in multidisciplinary situations.
- Ability to face complex situations and solve problems with limited information
- Ability to transmit and communicate conclusions and outcomes both to specialized and non-specialized publics on a clear and unambiguous basis
- Provide legal advice in regulated sectors both at an international level and a domestic one
- Identify conflicts of interests and manage resolution techniques in the organizational, management and commercial context of regulated sectors
- Assess the array of liabilities likely to arise from the provision of professional services in regulated sectors
- Provide legal advice to international companies willing to invest in regulated sectors
- Develop skills to improve consumer protection in regulated markets
- Teamwork in specific, interdisciplinary and international contexts in order to integrate diverse contributions towards a common goal.

DESCRIPTION OF CONTENTS: PROGRAMME

State powers and European Union competences in transport law and competition law

Legal regime for the provision of services in maritime transport market: liberalization and access to market
Competition in maritime transport markets

Legal regime for the provision of services in air transport market: liberalization and access to market
Access to airport network and facilities. Competition in air transport markets

Legal regime for the provision of services in rail transport market: liberalization and access to market
Access to rail network

Legal regime for the provision of services in road transport market and competition law: liberalization and access to market
Universal service in transport market and rules

Competition law in post markets

LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

Learning activities:

Lectures
Tutorials
Teamwork
Individual study

Teaching methodologies

- debates and critical discussions

- practical assignments: drafting, conflict resolution, negotiations, prelegislative tasks, regulatory and supervision issues, case law analysis, preparing documents, report drafting

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

Given the essentially practical orientation of activities and teaching methodologies, assessment system will be:

Graded assignments to be presented in class (in groups or on an individual basis) 60%

Final exam (40%)

% end-of-term-examination:	40
% of continuous assessment (assignments, laboratory, practicals...):	60

BASIC BIBLIOGRAPHY

- PETIT LAVALL, M^a Victoria Régimen jurídico del sector postal, Tirant lo Blanch Tratados.