LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

LEARNING ACTIVITIES.

Lectures focusing on the guidelines according to the Program. Preparing the classes requires an advance knowledge of the relevant bibliography, regulations and jurisprudence in each session. It is up to the teacher to deliver and update them. One month before the beginning of the sessions, students will have such materials at their disposal, as well as the possibility of receiving online information from the teacher-tutor responsible for all relevant information in the subject that take place from the date of receipt thereof.

The classes will correspond to the model seminar-workshop, in which the transmission, classification and deepening of the basic knowledge of the subjects will be the result of an active debate between the teacher and students.

An important part of the face-to-face sessions is the individual or collective discussion of the works carried out by the students, and in the preparation of legal documents and procedural documents.

TEACHING METHODOLOGY

Public lecture with support of computer and audiovisual media, in which the main concepts of the subject are developed and the bibliography is provided to complement the students' learning.

Critical reading of texts recommended by the teacher of the subject:

Press articles, reports, manuals and / or academic articles.

Resolution of practical cases, problems, etc., raised by the teacher individually or in groups.

Discussion in class, under the moderation of the professor of subjects related to the content of the subject, as well as of practical cases.

Elaboration of works and reports individually or in groups

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

% end-of-term-examination/test:	60
% of continuous assessment (assignments, laboratory, practicals...):	40

Ordinary session.

Participation in class is a fundamental aspect of the assessment system. Therefore, the teacher will take good notice after each session of the names of the students that have participated in the debates in an active and constructive way.

Full participation in all the sessions will grant the student 40% of the grade

Students will as well solve a practical case (in groups) which will determine the 60% of the final mark.

Extra-ordinary session:

End-of-term exam, consisting in a practical case to solve individually: 70% of total mark.

Rest of the mark: permanent evaluation of participation, attitude and intervention of the student during presential classes (30% of the total mark).

The absence of more than 20% of the front classes causes dismissal from the course.
