OBJECTIVES

The Master's dissertation es the final step in the Degree's curriculum. The approach is professional, in coherence with the Master's goal and contents. The student acquires competences of analysis of practical legal problems, of search of sources, of application of rules and case law to real problems, of reasoning, of oral and written communication, and of innovation.

DESCRIPTION OF CONTENTS: PROGRAMME

At the outset of the semester, the Dissertations' Director will publish one or more practical cases, so that the students solve them. Said cases will include contents of several courses of the Degree. The director will assist the students during the semester, but without providind direct solution to the cases and problems posed to them.
The students will write the solutions in a final essay. The essay will have to be orally defended in front of an examination panel.

LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

The University uses the Turnitin Feedback Studio program within the Aula Global for the delivery of student work. This program compares the originality of the work delivered by each student with millions of electronic resources and detects those parts of the text that are copied and pasted. If the student has correctly made the appointment and the bibliographic reference of the documents he uses as a source, Turnitin will not mark it as plagiarism.
