LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

Lectures (Monday) followed by presentations made by students in class (Thursday).

2 midterms: one in the middle of the term (first half) and another one at the end (second half).

Presentations: summary of recent research papers complemented with documented data.

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

% end-of-term-examination/test:	0
% of continuous assessment (assignments, laboratory, practicals...):	100

Each midterm counts 30%, presentations 30% and class participation 10%. With this the students can pass the subject.

The students can also choose to do a final exam, then the exam counts 50% and the rest 50%.

There is also an extraordinary exam in June, for those students who failed.
