DESCRIPTION OF CONTENTS: PROGRAMME

Work Final Project (TFG), according to University policy is another subject in the curriculum (6 credits). It is implementation of a single character work in which the student applies to a specific problem in the field of qualifications, knowledge, skills and competencies they have acquired during their studies. The work involves defining a topic, search literature, conduct original research, write and present the results orally in court.

The content of the TFG in the Degree of Humanities can be very diverse:

- Works of scientific content, technical, humanistic or artistic
- Projects of cultural dissemination activities and organization of scientific or artistic nature
- Analysis and resolution of real case studies in the field of qualification
- Literature review and description of the situation and the state of the art in a particular subject

In the Degree in Humanities, the TFG is offered in two possible ways:

a) General: The Academic Director of the degree determined according to the departments who teach in the degree one or more themes to be made as work order degree in each academic year, students organized in groups of 20 students for guidance and protection activities.

b) Specific: it is a specific topic work to be performed by a single student under the direction of a professor of the University. If done in a different institution to Carlos III University of Madrid, the direction of TFG may be held by a foreign university graduates to college, but must have a tutor assigned to the UC3M.

Besides the possibility that students are proposing the theme of work, as long as a teacher agrees to be the tutor for the subject it is supported.

LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

The training activities of Final Project included in the general form :

- General orientation sessions , taught in the classroom to the whole group (three annual sessions)
- Individual counseling sessions (with prior appointment by email coordinator and the tutor / to the TFG)
- Face and online tutorials for drawing of the Final Grade

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

Presentation of Final Project and its defense : 100 % of the overall mark .

Prior to the defense of the TFG , the teacher responsible for the group will draft a report to be considered by the court for the final grade . It will be collected , among others, the development aspects of the work can not be valued in the written work or in the act of defense.

The presentation and defense of the TFG will be made by each student before the Court , which may raise questions which it considers necessary for evaluation. The Tribunal shall prepare a record of individual rating for each student in the subject of the TFG , the level of acquisition of each of the powers in accordance with the evaluation matrix established by the Centre and the overall grade obtained by the student will be specified .

The University uses the Turnitin Feedback Studio program within the Aula Global for the delivery of student work. This program compares the originality of the work delivered by each student with millions of electronic resources and detects those parts of the text that are copied and pasted. If the student has correctly made the appointment and the bibliographic reference of the documents he uses as a source, Turnitin will not mark it as plagiarism.
