Art History I

OBJECTIVES

The students will learn how to:

- Analyze an artistic image in its constituent elements and in the frame of the art movement(s) it belongs to.
- Study a given work of art in relationship to its historical, social, cultural and ideological context
- Understand the cultural and symbolic values of any piece of art.
- Evaluate and comprehend primary sources and art history texts, in order to be able to understand the nature of artistic activities and their social, political and economic implications.

DESCRIPTION OF CONTENTS: PROGRAMME

The syllabus is a follow-up to History of Art I. As such, it is organized as a chronological study of the main artistic manifestations of the Western World from roughly 1400 AD to our days. Special attention will be paid to the great styles of the Modern Era, Renaissance, Baroque, Neoclassicism- and the break with tradition represented by Modernism and Avant-Garde.

LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

The course of History of Art II consists of theoretical classes and practical classes. In 2020-2021, the theoretical classes or the master classes will be the synchronous and interactive online modality through blackboard collaborate. Recording of classes. The practical classes consist of commentary of texts and image analysis. Can be in person or online sincrona, through blackboard collaborate. Recording of classes. The tutorials are dedicated to the revision of theoretical and practical contents, to the preparation of essays and to the preparation of the exam. Will be individual and online, through blackboard collaborate or email.
