Teaching Methodology

This course consists of lectures and a number of activities which will be carried out by the students. In general, classes are designed in a manner to promote students' active participation and critical thinking. Therefore, it is essential that they come to class prepared to discuss the readings assigned for that particular session. There will be several activities such as teamwork, presentations, class and small group discussions and debates in designated sessions. It is highly recommended to keep up-to-date about ongoing events in global economy and geopolitical issues. Checking web-sources along with the respective sections of the major journals and newspapers will help students go over geoeconomics-related news and commentaries.

The tutorials will normally take place via online and/or via e-mail

----TEACHING SYSTEM FOR 2020-21 UNDER NORMAL CONDITIONS----

In accordance with the teaching model approved for 2020-21, under normal conditions the Master in Geopolitics and Strategic Studies will be taught On Campus (Face-to-Face classes).

In order to ensure the prevention and social distancing measures in classrooms. the courses with a number of students enrolled higher than the capacity of the classroom will have a Weekly Rotating System for the face-to face classes combined with synchronous online teaching system.

All students must have the necessary equipment to follow classes remotely (device with internet connection). Due to the restrictions in the use of computer rooms on Campus it may be necessary to take your own computer equipment for its use in the classroom.

* Students that cannot attend to On Campus classes at the beginning of the academic year, due to difficulties or delays obtaining their visas, border closures, or similar issues, will be able to follow classes in a Synchronous Online Teaching system until they are able to arrive to On Campus classes.

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

The course grade will be determined through continuous evaluation (whose relative weight will be 60%) and the final research paper (whose relative weight will be 40%). It will be calculated as follows (based on specific assignments):

Class participation	10%
Group presentations	30%
Group paper	20%
Final paper (individual)	40%

% end-of-term-examination: 40

% of continuous assessment (assignments, laboratory, practicals...): 60
