OBJECTIVES

The first basic course is aimed towards achieving level A1 according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. By completing this course, the student will be able to:

- Start using the language to solve basic communication tasks, in class and in everyday situations.
- Understand, interact and express themselves in these situations in oral and written standard Spanish.
- Approach the most relevant social aspects of everyday life and recognize the most common ways of social interaction.
- Acquire the necessary knowledge for those situations through practice.
- Make the most of the initial motivation, search for opportunities to practice (including through social media, etc.) and train the use of strategies to improve communication and make learning easier.
