LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

METHODOLOGY

Theoretical credits:

Through theoretical classes, with explanations and presentation of texts as well as artistic, experimental and critical creative works. Group debate will be essential to the course

Practical credits:

Through group discussions based on active participation, comment and analysis of texts and images. Students are expected to make an oral presentation.

FORMATIVE ACTIVITIES

- Debate and presentation sessions.
- Mandatory Readings.

- Screening and analysis of works
- Individual research work (essay).

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

REGULAR TERM

The final grade will be made up of the following percentages:

- 70 % of the grade will be based on a final research paper (4.000-5.000 word essay).
- 30% of the grade will depend on the assistance and participation in class, as well as an oral presentation (10 minutes aprox.).

Final Research Paper:

The guidelines for this work will be thoroughly explained at the beginning of the course, and its instructions will be published on the digital platform.

With regard to the research papers the following evaluation criteria will be applied:

- Command of contents and ability to relate different ideas and approaches.
- Relevant documentation and proper use of literature.
- Personal reflection and well-argued critical contributions.
- Innovative ideas and approaches.
- Comprehensive exposition and correct formal development.

Attendance and participation:

Class attendance is mandatory

Participation in class debates on readings and selected works is of paramount importance.

Oral Presentation:

Students are expected to prepare an oral presentation (about 10 minutes). It is an opportunity to showcase analytic and communication skills, as well as the ability to elaborate on the notions seen in class.

EXTRAORDINARY TERM

Research paper according with previously guidelines.

% end-of-term-examination:	70
% of continuous assessment (assignments, laboratory, practicals...):	30
