LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

Theoretical explanations of the main topics of the subject will take place, with active participation of the students in the learning activities. There will be several sessions where readings will be evaluated. The main international legal texts and their special relationship with the Spanish law will be analyzed. Furthermore case studies based on real events, including knowledge of print media and, where appropriate, specialized videos will be studied.

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

Ordinary session.

The knowledge will be evaluated through the active participation of students, by controlling reading, performing works and execution of exercises and case studies. Public exhibitions will be held by working groups.

Each teacher will set a compulsory minimum number of practices without whose completion the student will not pass the continuous assessment.

There will be a final theory test mandatory. The minimum required grade to pass the final theory exam will be 4 points. Students who do not get these four points will not pass the subject.

A compulsory exam will take place at the end of the course consisting in a written essay. There will be four questions, laid by subject's coordinator or its representative, which student will choose and answer only two. Exam length will be one hour. Minimal mark to pass is 4 (of 10 as the highest). Any student that does not mark four points will fail the exam.

Alternatively, authorized by the coordinator, it can be an examination test

Student's comprehensive mark will be performed by the lecturer responsible for the continuous evaluation, in order to achieve the most balanced assessment of his profile, balancing practical and theoretical skills. Professor in charge of master lectures may make assessments as well.
