Practice of communicative skills corresponding to B1 levels

Teaching and learning format for the second semester will be 100% face-to-face sessions. Tools used: BigBlueButton and Aula Virtual.

The programme of the course, especially the weekly planning, may be subject to variations due to duly justified reasons of force majeure, as well as due to academic events communicated sufficiently in advance.

LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

Learning Activities

Theoretical-practical classes in which the knowledge to be acquired will be presented to the students, who will work in pairs, groups, and individually, guided by teachers.

Student participation in the class session will be essential for the final grade.

Homework assignments, whose objective is to further practice and expand on material presented in class, are compulsory. Instruction and class activities will be carried out exclusively in English

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

The final exam will be face-to-face, and computer-based. It is made up of the test section: grammar, vocabulary and listening comprehension.

Global assessment for the course will be determined based on the weight of:

- the grades obtained in the continuous assessment activities (40%) and
- the final exam grade (60%)

Activities and assignments not completed will be receive a grade of (0).

Students who do not take the final exam during the regular scheduled time or in the extra session, will be graded as no-show.

% end-of-term-examination:	60
% of continuous assessment (assignments, laboratory, practicals...):	40
