OBJECTIVES

The second basic course corresponds to the A2 level in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. By completing this course, the student will be able to:

- Use the language as a means of communication and self-expression, in class and in everyday situations.
- Understand and interact in those situations in oral and written standard Spanish.
- Approach the most relevant social aspects of everyday life and recognize the most common ways of social interaction.
- Acquire the necessary knowledge for those situations through practice.
- Make the most of the initial motivation, search for opportunities to practice (including through social media, etc.) and train the use of strategies to improve communication and make learning easier.
- Acquire the tools to assess and improve the learning process and language use.
