

Academic Year: ( 2023 / 2024 )

Review date: 19/05/2023 10:47:57

Department assigned to the subject: Criminal Law, Procedural Law and History Law Department

Coordinating teacher: SOLETO MUÑOZ, HELENA

Type: Electives ECTS Credits : 3.0

Year : 1 Semester : 2

REQUIREMENTS (SUBJECTS THAT ARE ASSUMED TO BE KNOWN)

Law studies

OBJECTIVES

The student will be able to evaluate issues that help to decide the adequacy and the appropriate circumstances of submission to mediation.

The student will be able to distinguish the most relevant styles of mediation.

The student will be able to understand the different contexts of mediation.

The student will be able to act as an advocate in a mediation procedure.

DESCRIPTION OF CONTENTS: PROGRAMME

1. Civil and commercial mediation
  - 1.1. National and international regulation
  - 1.2. Procedures and strategies
  - 1.3. Strategies for participation in mediation for jurists
2. Mediation in traffic accidents
3. Mediation in civil liability derived from crime
  - 3.1. The reparation to the victim as antecedent of the restorative justice
  - 3.2. The regulations on reparations to victims and mediation
  - 3.3. Restorative Procedures
4. Other mechanisms for conflict resolution: collaborative practice and other methods

LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

The classes are structured around the methodology of the case: the students will work with a practical case in which negotiating strategies are organized and conflict resolution sessions are developed. Information and analysis will follow or precede the case.

Tutorials are to be scheduled at student's request

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

% end-of-term-examination/test: 35

% of continuous assessment (assignments, laboratory, practicals...): 65

Continuous evaluation through participation 2 points, evaluation of performance in the cases: 4,5 points

Final exam or paper: 3,5 points

BASIC BIBLIOGRAPHY

- MOORE The process of Mediation, Jossey-Bass, 2014

ADDITIONAL BIBLIOGRAPHY

- BUCH, B. and FOLGUER, J. The promise of mediation, Wiley, 2004