

Security emergencies

Academic Year: (2023 / 2024)

Review date: 27-04-2023

Department assigned to the subject: International Law, Ecclesiastical Law and Philosophy of Law Department

Coordinating teacher: GONZÁLEZ RODRÍGUEZ, JULIÁN ALFONSO

Type: Compulsory ECTS Credits : 3.0

Year : 4 Semester : 2

REQUIREMENTS (SUBJECTS THAT ARE ASSUMED TO BE KNOWN)

They do not exist

DESCRIPTION OF CONTENTS: PROGRAMME

Contents conducive to the acquisition of knowledge in:

Conflict resolution and emergency situations.

States of emergency, alarm, exception and site.

National civil protection system.

Civilian and military missions of the Security Forces and Corps in the international arena.

Peace operations.

Civil crisis management.

LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

Regarding training activities, they will consist of theoretical classes, practical classes, group work and individual student work. Likewise, group tutorials will be carried out through the videoconference system.

Thematic conferences that are of current interest carried out by experts may be developed and included.

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

The evaluation system will follow the following scheme:

40% individual work (s)

60% knowledge test (1 exam)

% end-of-term-examination: 60

% of continuous assessment (assignments, laboratory, practicals...): 40