LEARNING ACTIVITIES AND METHODOLOGY

The teaching structure of the course is divided into:

LECTURES: The professor will present the theoretical grounds of the course, with the help of audiovisual material.

CASE STUDIES: Students will discuss specific cases regarding the protection of cultural heritage.

PRACTICAL SESSIONS: Students will engage in activities concerning the study of cultural heritage.

VISITS: Given the right circumstances, students will visit one or more cultural institutions.

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

% end-of-term-examination/test:	40
% of continuous assessment (assignments, laboratory, practicals...):	60

The (continuous) evaluation will be based on the following criteria:

- Interventions and work done in class, practices and visits to monuments: 60%.
- Final exam: 40%. In which the knowledge acquired by the student during the course will be evaluated.

A minimum grade of 5 (out of 10) in the final exam is required to pass the course.

The same criteria apply to the extraordinary exam. If the student has not delivered the assignments then the final exam will account for 100% of his final grade.
