

Multilevel Government

Academic Year: (2024 / 2025)

Review date: 17-05-2024

Department assigned to the subject: Social Sciences Department

Coordinating teacher: JURADO NEBREDA, IGNACIO

Type: Electives ECTS Credits : 6.0

Year : 4 Semester :

OBJECTIVES

Understand and know the fundamental elements of multilevel systems, with special attention to the Spanish system, and be able to analyze their impact on political dynamics.

DESCRIPTION OF CONTENTS: PROGRAMME

The autonomous state as a multilevel political system
Theoretical and conceptual framework of political relations in multilevel government: multilevel governance and management
Territorial framework and intergovernmental relations in Spain
Knowledge of multilevel management in Spain:
Administrative structure of the multilevel government in Spain
Multilevel policies
Intergovernmental financing
Multilevel government in globalized scenarios
Multilevel government and information society

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

% end-of-term-examination:	60
% of continuous assessment (assignments, laboratory, practicals...):	40
60% Final Exam
40% Class exercises and assignment submission

BASIC BIBLIOGRAPHY

- Schakel, Arjan H., Liesbet Hooghe, and Gary Marks Multilevel governance and the state." The Oxford handbook of transformations of the state, Oxford University Press, 2015