ACADEMIC YEAR	: 2019-2020
COURSE NAME	: VARIETIES OF CAPITALISM
COURSE CODE	: 16935

COORDINATOR	: ISIK ÖZEL

TOOLS AND PLATFORMS USED FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE ACTIVITIES

The primary technologies used in the class were powerpoint presentations with voice along with the means of Aula Global. Each course was structured in the following way:

1. Assigned readings which were supplemented in some sessions with something to view: a news clip, an interview, etc
2. A powerpoint presentation with synced audio. These averaged approximately 50 minutes in length
3. Online discussion forum. The online discussion forum is required, and forms a students participation grade. Students respond to a prompt and to one another, multiple responses are encouraged (though only one entry is required).

ADAPTATION of TEACHING ACTIVITIES and TIME SCHEDULE

No classes were missed during the transition from in-person instruction to on-line teaching.

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

The balance between continuous evaluation and the final exam remains unchanged. The final exam will now be a take home essay, scheduled for the same time as the time exam, to be uploaded on aula global.
