

COURSE: DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR LAW
DEGREE: LAW	COURSE: 3rd SEMESTER: 2nd

WEEKLY PLANIFICATION
WEEK	SESSION	DESCRIPTION OF ACADEMIC CONTENT	Indicate other different space than classroom	STUDENTS WEEKLY ACADEMIC WORK
				DESCRIPTION	HOURS	HOURS OF ACADEMIC WORK Max 7 Hr.
1	1	Presentation of the Course. General directions about methodology, system of evaluation, tutorials, etc. LESSON. The diplomatic and consular relations in International Society. Origin, concept, nature and basic characters. The codifying process and the codified general conventions.		Before the Lesson is taught, students must have studied academic materials of the book of reference recommended by the Professor.	1,5

1	2	PRACTICAL CASE NR. 1		Student must analyze the recommended academic material in order to discuss and make a public presentation on his personal opinion. The Professor will ask questions to the students.	1,5
2	3	LESSON. The application of Diplomatic and Consular Law . International liability for the infringement of their legal rules. The diplomatic functions.		Before the Lesson is taught, students must have studied academic materials of the book of reference recommended by the Professor.	1,5
2	4	PRACTICAL CASE NR. 2		Student must analyze the recommended academic material in order to discuss and make a public presentation on his personal opinion. The Professor will ask questions to the students.	1,5
3	5	LESSON. The diplomatic mission. Definition, types, organization, creation and modification. The activity of relation of diplomatic mission. The members of diplomatic mission.		Before the Lesson is taught, students must have studied academic materials of the book of reference recommended by the Professor.	1,5
3	6	PRACTICAL CASE NR. 3		Student must analyze the recommended academic material in order to discuss and	1,5

				make a public presentation on his personal opinion. The Professor will ask questions to the students.
4	7	LESSON. The diplomatic statute. The statute of diplomatic mission. Immunities and privileges. Inviolability of premises, goods and archives. The custom and tax immunities. Other privileges.		Before the Lesson is taught, students must have studied academic materials of the book of reference recommended by the Professor.	1,5
4	8	PRACTICAL CASE NR. 4		Student must analyze the recommended academic material in order to discuss and make a public presentation on his personal opinion. The Professor will ask questions to the students.	1,5
5	9	LESSON. The statute of members of the diplomatic mission. The statute of diplomatic agents. The statute of technical and administrative staff. The statute of other services staff.		Before the Lesson is taught, students must have studied academic materials of the book of reference recommended by the Professor.	1,5
5	10	PRACTICAL CASE NR. 5		Student must analyze the recommended academic material in order to discuss and make a public presentation on his personal opinion. The Professor will ask	1,5

				questions to the students.
6	11	LESSON. The consular functions. The consular office and its members. Definition, types, organization, creation and modification. Members of the consular office.		Before the Lesson is taught, students must have studied academic materials of the book of reference recommended by the Professor.
6	12	PRACTICAL CASE NR. 6		Student must analyze the recommended academic material in order to discuss and make a public presentation on his personal opinion. The Professor will ask questions to the students.
7	13	LESSON. The statute of consular office. The statute of members of the consular office. The consular relation by means of honorary consuls.		Before the Lesson is taught, students must have studied academic materials of the book of reference recommended by the Professor.
7	14	EVALUATION		SOLUTION OF A FINAL PRACTICAL CASE	1,5
SUBTOTAL Tutorials, exams, hand in of papers, etc.					Subtotal	21+49 = 70
Preparation of evaluation and evaluation					3
Total					75	