

The content of the course will be organised in big blocks:

1. What is Anthropology?

- The anthropological notion of culture and its problems
- A basic dilemma: the other and the self.
- Towards an anthropological project: on alterity
- Sights of anthropological enquires.
- A contemporary definition of anthropology: the local and the global.

2. Anthropology as a specific field of enquiry

- Anthropology/Sociology
- Anthropology/History
- Anthropology/Psycoanalysis
- Anthropology/Psicology
- Anthropology/Economics

3. Procedures, research and methods in Anthropology.

- De-centering and extrangment from the European logic
- Anthropology as a cartography of social logics.
- Fieldwork
- Object/subject
- Empirical work and its functions

4. Brief introduction to the history of anthropological

- Different traditions: Spanish/British/French
- Evolutionism
- Diffusionism
- Funtionalism
- Structuralism
- Postmodern
- Eco-critical anthropology