

END-OF-DEGREE ESSAY EVALUATION MATRIX

		POINTS
Content (5 points maximum)	The work has an original content The object of study is relevant The work integrates, compiles, synthesises and analyses the information with rigour. The structure of the work is clear and balanced.
Methodology (3 points maximum)	The methodology used is consistent with the object of study and the objectives pursued.
Defence (2 points maximum)	In the defence of the dissertation the student has shown knowledge of the subject matter of the dissertation. The defence was interesting and/or attractive. The student was able to respond convincingly and appropriately to the questions or other issues raised by the examining board.
Overall mark of the Selection Board (sum of the three previous sections)

Overall rating of the tutor
------------------------------------	--

FINAL TFG GRADE
In accordance with the regulations of the TFG subject of the FCCSSJ and the subject's REINA form, the final grade will be the weighted average of the overall grade awarded by the tutor (with a weight of 30%) and the overall grade awarded by the examining board (with a weight of 70%).	